Fall 2011 Youth & Teen Classes - Pullen Arts Center

Drama - Performance Poetry

Age 12 yrs. and up.

What is your story? Performance poetry is based in telling stories, whether it's about your own life or something that you're passionate about. In addition to writing poems, participants will learn how to share their poems through powerful performance. We'll discover the rhythms, repetition, patterns and inflections within words and stories. Perfect for those who want to read their work at a local community event such as an open mic. All communication and ability levels welcome (written and spoken). This workshop is barrier free and fully inclusive. For more information about specific accessibility needs, please contact Pullen Arts Center. Instructor: Megan Cutter (4 sessions)
